Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. Kevin: "Who has the duchess?" I demanded, holding the letter to the side to interrogate the imposter. He audibly released a breath, stepping forward again and indicated the name at the bottom of the note - Killian. Doubtful. I glanced at the name, then looked again to the cloaked man, who still stared at the letter. "Yeah, I saw that," I informed him, "And you are?" No response. He grabbed the ransom note out of my hands and continued to stare at it as if he hadn't seen it before. "And now I'm to presume that you're an innocent?" I inquired impatiently. He shrugged again, then turned and walked back down the path from whence he came. "Hey!" I called, hastily pursuing him. He took off at a run, dropping the letter on the ground. "HEY!" I yelled again and raced after him. Killian: I watched as Kevin ran after Fu's private messenger, then strode forward through the main-gate entrance, halting in front of the nearest guard, who fortunately had not noticed the commotion. "See that this is delivered to the duke," I said and handed him the letter from Fu describing the duchess' detour to reside at my residence for the weekend - the letter I had stolen from the messenger and replaced with the ransom note. He nodded, and I turned, continuing back down the trail. A grin turned up the corners of my mouth, and a maniacal gleam came to my eye. The game was afoot. Kevin: It was about an hour later when I found myself chasing the weasel into the black-wood forest, or rather what was left of his trail. I hadn't seen hide or hair of him for the...
